

Value for money in Nilai Tiga

WITH Hari Raya Puasa and Deepavali around the corner, the shops in Nilai Tiga, Negri Sembilan, are doing brisk business.

Some 60,000 shoppers throng the commercial centre every day. Shops selling artificial flowers, car accessories and textiles try to outdo each other by offering the lowest prices. Almost every shop is advertising one "special sale" or another.

Sabariah Atan, 28, (picture) from Rembau, is one customer who easily gets lost in all the merchandise.

She is shopping for artificial flowers.

"I just do not know which one to buy. I have been in this shop for about an hour and I have not yet grabbed a single item," said the mother of four.

Like thousands of others, Sabariah prefers Nilai Tiga for shopping due to its low prices and the wide choice of goods. — NST picture by Hamzah Md Som
