

Nothing fancy, just cheap at Nilai 3

Ever busy Nilai 3 Wholesale Centre.

WOULDN'T it be great if there is a shopping venue where we can find Johor's Tangkak and Ayer Itam and Kedah's Padang Besar and Langkawi together?

Try Nilai 3 Wholesale Centre near Seremban and you will be surprised to find the gist of these popular shopping destinations clustered in this 165ha area.

There are textile outlets similar to those in Tangkak, household items with "Padang Besar" price tags and selections of potteries and earthenware just like in Ayer Itam.

With 150 shop lots, walking through the small township reminds one of the atmosphere in Langkawi's famous shopping bazaar in Kuah town.

As its name depicts, Nilai 3 Wholesale Centre is a one-stop wholesale, tourist and shopping destination - drawing more than 3,000 shoppers on weekdays and more than 10,000 on weekends and public holidays!

Initially set up as a promotional centre for goods from China in December 2001, it now has almost everything under the sun - textiles, hardware, furniture, groceries, lighting and herbs.

Offering no branded or superior quality items, the centre is a place for good buys and services at attractive prices.

It is accessible via the North-South highway. From the Nilai exit, just follow the signboards to Nilai Industrial Centre which eventually will lead to Nilai 3. - By Zalina Mohd Som.

Colourful crystal flowers to choose from.

Sidewalk stalls add life to the already bustling centre.
